And the election is over. Some say that it was made to order and others are wondering how it happened. Personally it pleased me a whole lot. However, I like Jim Farley—I wonder what happened to those other two states.

Florida went Democratic by a handsome majority and as a result we will have two of the best United States senators in Congress. People of the Fourth congressional district must be satisfied with the work Mark Wilcox has done in Congress since they returned him by a big majority.

Governor Fred Cone. That's the man who will head our state government for the coming four years. As a member of the next legislature I shall do what I can to co-operate with the governor just so long as the things he proposes are for the betterment and advancement of the state of Florida. And I don't believe Fred Cone will ask the legislature for one single thing that the people do not want for the good of the state as a whole.

While I'm talking about politics I'd like to take this opportunity to thank the thousands of friends in Palm Beach county for honoring me with election to the legislature. I make one promise and that is: I shall do only those things which I believe will be for the advancement and betterment of the citizenry of the Lake Okechobee region, Palm Beach county and the state of Florida.

As a representative of Palm Beach county in the next session of the legislature I shall make an earnest effort to conduct myself in such a manner that the voters will feel they have made no mistake in their choice.

Have you heard about the wonderful trip the Pahokee Blue Devils are going on? I think it will be the finest trip a foot ball squad could have. The entire squad, assisted by several public spirited business men of Pahokee and Belle Glade, took the squad to Gainesville where they saw the Gator-Maryland tussle last Saturday. But I'm afraid of story. First, on Friday afternoon the boys were shown through the Ringling Art museum in Sarasota. That night they ate the Saragosa eleven and on next day they saw the big game. I heard one of the men who made the trip said he was proud for people to know that he and his boys were coming back on the trip.

The price on beans has been a bit aggravating this week, so the growers tell me. 85c has been a lot of money for beans. However, the farmers are still hopeful that about the price. I haven't any beans but I'd like to see the price get around 75c, and stick there for several weeks.

I've been kept mighty busy for the past few weeks seeing that my farmer friends are supplied with plenty of our new style picker's tickets. This season I had the happy idea that picker's tickets printed on both sides would be a time and the idea. Especially so when we announced that there would be no extra charge for printing them on both sides. It is just another of those little services that this office is only too glad to render to its many customers and friends in the Lake Okechobee region.

Next Wednesday is Armistice day. You remember 18 years ago don't you? It was a grand and glorious day and next Wednesday we should pay tribute to those who made the supreme sacrifice for their country. It was too good for the returning heroes then. So, on November 11, let's remind the boys that we're appreciative of their service.

I wonder what the topic of conversation is going to be now that the election is over. Maybe we can interest ourselves in something on the Literary Digest poll.

Tokyo—Feeling that American and other films portraying kindness beyond official disapproval have a tendency to offend the people's morals, aroused thoughts and misrepresentations, Japanese authorities have banned such films from the Empire.

SAVE LIVES IS REQUEST OF SAFETY DIRECTOR
TALLAHASSEE, Nov. 5.—"I know of no better Armistice or more humanitarian activity than a concentrated drive on reckless, new, careless and discourteous drivers by your Post and every other Post in Florida," wrote Asher Frank, state safety director, in his personal Armistice day

"Now I Lay Me"

This child was hurt when a tornado struck Tupelo, Mississippi, necessitating medical and nursing care for hundreds—care which in many cases could not have been given without Red Cross assistance. It is a fine tribute to the organization that the young beneficiaries of its health and relief services invariably place themselves in the hands of the Red Cross with a completely confident, "Now I lay me" message sent this week to American legion headquarters throughout the state.

"Declare an armistice on the terrible daily slaughter of innocents on the streets and highways of our state through motor accidents," he appealed. "Let us dedicate ourselves to end slaughter. God, in giving you wisdom to drive an automobile, certainly did not intend that it should be used as an instrument of death."

Commenting on the fact that the Armistice of November 11 celebrates the end of a war to end wars, Mr. Frank pointed out that our nation is now engaged in a different sort of war, a war that is killing 35,000 to 37,000 people annually, a war in which all can play a part. "Automobile accidents," he said, "are the leading cause of death in this country during the last 10 years amounting to more than 300,000, which is 45 percent more than were killed in all the wars in which America has been engaged he showed."

In closing, Mr. Frank reminded each Legion post that his office would furnish all kinds of safety literature and instructions for public and school use upon request. Mr. Frank pointed out that our nation is now engaged in a

RED CROSS AID TO MORE THAN 500,000 DISASTER VICTIMS

Large Urban Areas Devastated As Elements Hit 20 States East of Mississippi

"The number of disaster victims aided by the Red Cross during the fiscal year ended June 30 was more than four times the number aided in the previous twelve months period," Admiral Cary T. Grayson, chairman, said in commenting on highlight, o. the annual report just issued. "Over 12,000 families were given food, clothing, shelter and medical care, and thousands of homes were rebuilt or repaired by the Red Cross to enable them to carry on."

Pointing to the many-sided problems created by the wide variety of types of disasters which occurred during the year, Admiral Grayson said: "The Red Cross sent hundreds of trained workers to 20 states to meet the many exigencies of catastrophes which included earthquake, epidemic, flood, pestilence, fire, hurricane, ice lock, landslide, refugee relief, shipwreck, tornado and fire."

The report emphasized the marked value of Governmental aid. "Cooperation with disaster relief agencies, giving as example the flight of Army bombing planes which carried Red Cross food to make room for refugees at Houston, Pennsylvania, during the Spring floods. More than 10,000 persons were rescued from the second floors of homes in Wilkes-Barre and Kingston, Pennsylvania. Coast Guard Red Cross cooperation at the height of these same floods."

"The complete resources of Red Cross leadership, training and disaster experience were brought into play by the Spring floods and tornadoes which took so heavy a toll of life and property in eastern and southern states this year, the annual report reveals. The Red Cross aided 2,000 families in 14 flood states east of the Mississippi and 6,000 families in 6 tornado hit states south of the Mason-Dixon line in one operation."

"Never before have as many metropolis centers suffered the weight of attack by wind and water within a single year, challenging Red Cross preparedness and efficiency by so wide a variety of pressing human problems," Chairman Grayson said.

"As a work of relief to disaster victims the Red Cross expended 10 acres of $2,500,000 for the year. The report points out that this figure does not include assistance given to 27 lesser disasters with a total of 2,000 persons aided, and adds that additional millions will be used to "clean up" Spring floods and tornadoes."

"Numerous local disaster situations occurring during the year were met by Red Cross chapter funds and manpower," Admiral Grayson said. "In each major relief operation, undertake the great army of Red Cross volunteers aided trained workers with the task of rehabilitating those without resources who had suffered losses."

"The Red Cross disaster relief service is one of many Red Cross activities supported by the American people through membership at the time of Roll Call, held each year from Armistice Day to Thanksgiving."

Red Cross Nurses Combat Disease on Wide Front

At the close of the fiscal year ended June 30, there were 672 Red Cross nurses bettering health conditions and caring for the sick in 664 communities. These Red Cross public health nurses cared for a total of 232,418 persons during the year and made more than a million visits on their behalf.

The annual report of the American Red Cross states further that these nurses cooperated with doctors in examining 67,067 school and pre-school children, with 342,261 physical defects found and curative treatment rendered in 309,010 cases.

In 979 Red Cross chapters 1,732 graduate nurses taught Red Cross home hygiene and care of the sick, leaving certificates to 55,128 persons completing the course. In addition, 1,777 Red Cross reserve nurses were called upon during the year for disaster and epidemic control work.

Membership in the American Red Cross last year showed an increase of 256,595. A total of 4,137,264 men and women enrolled, their dollars enabling the Red Cross to carry on its program of service to the community forward at full strength. An increase in membership in 1935-1936 year at Roll Call held November 11 to 26, to meet the increasing demands upon the organization during 1937.

AT THE CHURCHES—

(Continued from Page Two) Good citizens of this great republic let us use as much energy in behalf of the Kingdom of Heaven. As we gave time and money and risked our religion for the sake of our political beliefs, let us now give ourselves as whole persons and beliefs.

Folks forget party lines for the sake of the nation. May they also forget domination as we close the book of the Kingdom of God. The revival meeting is showing increased attendance and the interest is good. Rev. Lewis is preaching strong, Bible sermons and we are anxious that the people take advantage of this opportunity to renew their religious experience. As the years roll by we will be glad for having us for taken time in these busy days for religious things. Man cannot live to himself simply by the cultivation of the soil; he must also to cultivate the finer qualities of his own life—to learn to live at peace with his fellowmen and in harmony with God.

It is a good omen when parents come to the Church school and bring the children; they were brought up that way; some continue to train their children that way. This is a fact to be noted to the children. We invite the parents to bring the small children and school children. The total are in the elementary department join one of the Bible classes under the leadership of Miss Daane is especially attractive to mothers, for here they will find congenial fellowship. There are two Bible classes where the daddies may enter and join in the study of the Bible.

The choir comes in for commendation this week. The anthem rendered last Sunday morning was a masterpiece of the choir. The choir members are leading the congregation in the hymns and the invitation for others to come and take part in this worthy service. Weekly practice is on Thursday evening at 8:00.

Let us give ourselves more earnestly to religion. Let us select the church of our faith. Let us attend it religiously. Let us live as becometh men in an age of light.

FARLEY HAS OWN STRAW VOTE FOR THE ELECTION

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—The back stage organizer of the mass of hitherto unreached voters who swept President Roosevelt to victory sailed today for a rest in Europe—and some literary work of his own in Russia.

The half-million "committees of one"—an entirely new army of election workers—were the brain of the Queen Mary bound for England. He turned out $2,000,000 pieces of publicity in that unusual drive alone, edited the Roosevelt Record and handled the publicity of thousands of small papers.

Hurja held no title, but was vaguely known "on the inside" as Chairman Farley's "right hand man." Hurja's big job since April 1934, has been the directing of a secret, scientific straw vote which was the official guide to directors of the Roosevelt campaign. The day before the election Hurja showed a few friends a copy of the final results of his work listing the percentage of votes of in each state, probable total votes and the trends, upward or downward or erratic. "It was a pessimist's poll, giving Mr. Roosevelt victory but 364 "sure" votes to 187 for London.

This private poll, costing more than $25,000, aimed to prevent over-confidence and to show the party exact counties and towns where work was needed. For Farley's ear alone, Hurja was more optimistic.

Senator Robinson's primary vote in Arkansas." Hurja, big, heavy, round-faced native of Crystal Falls, Michigan, and former newspaperman in various towns in Alaska, came to Farley's notice four years ago when he predicted every state correctly in the national election except Pennsylvania—beating every poll that year for accuracy. In this election Hurja made a more thorough survey but his methods and details of the poll are secrets of the Democratic party. He predicted Mr. Roosevelt would get 60.5 "sure" votes of 44,200,000 votes.

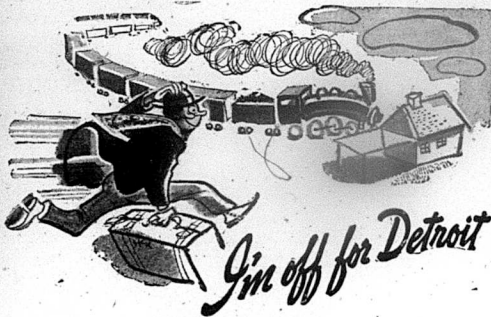

Albert Peyson Terhune says that if a dog shows signs of attacking you, you should stand perfectly still, with heels pressed together and arms folded, with the palms of the hand flat against your chest. Wonder if that'd work with a bill collector.

BFWC MEETING

Members of the Everglades Business and Professional Woman's club voted $10 to the Pahokee school library Tuesday night, with Mrs. Mable Calloway, president, presiding at the meeting.

Plans were also discussed for the public library, which the club hopes to put into operation before Christmas and each member was asked to buy a book, read it and donate it to the library, which now has over 200 books. Miss Pauline Hill will have book cases made. The library will be in the Woman's club building. The third week in November was designated book week.

The Canadian government is not bothering the Dionnes about the custody of their latest. With the government it is "five or no count."
